

Skirts.

There is no skirt like the city tailor-made skirt. In this sale you can buy them ready-made for the cost of material. Our best offer in this sale is any $6.50 skirt for $4.75. Black Panamas and Invisible Plaids.

2,500 Yards

dark outings. 10 to 15 yard lengths at 3c per yard until all sold. These goods are worth 5c and are much better than Calico for dresses.

1,500 Yards

Good, Brown Cotton at 5c per yard, worth today 6 1/2c; 10 yards to a customer.

THE POINT IS THIS.

We are always needing room and money and the close of each season finds us with many broken lines that we like and the space they occupy better than we do the goods, so they have to get out. That accounts for the special offerings at special prices on this page.

Furs.

Now is the time for furs and now is the time to buy. We have a large variety of furs and wide range of prices. The prices are cut deep on these and range from 69c to $12.75.

Suits.

Take your choice of 20 Ladies' Suits (that sold at $13.50 to $15) for only $9.75. These are all this season's goods and correct styles, not last season's long coats, but new hip length jackets. $12.75 for any ladies' suit that sold at $16.50 to $20. Some swell suits in these.

CLOAKS are in great demand and we have had a large stock, but we can't carry a single one over; $3.50 coats cut to $2.95; $6.50 coats cut to $4.75; $10 coats cut to $8; $12.50 coats cut to $9.75. Finer goods cut in proportion and among these are some of this season's swellest goods.

DON'T forget the good dinner the ladies of the Christian church of Crab Orchard will set in the Ed Peyton store-room here Monday next, court day. Oysters, coffee, etc. Patronize them and help a good cause.

COOK.—Mrs. H. Goldsmith Cook died at her home in Knoxville of consumption Wednesday. She is survived by her husband and several children. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. A. B. McKinney and was born and reared at Hustonville. She was a most excellent woman, a devout member of the Presbyterian church and a loving wife and kind, indulgent mother. Sad indeed is it that the husband, children and mother are made to mourn the loss of one so useful and who was so near and dear to them. The remains were brought to the old home and this morning will be laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery. May He Who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb comfort and sustain the sorrowing ones in their dark hour of trouble.

COME to see us for substantial presents, furniture of all kinds, carpets, rugs, wagons, carts, sleds, bicycles, velocipedes, Irish mails, pictures and statuary. Tribble & Pence.

MARK HARDIN is converting the office portion of the Myers House into an up-to-date store-room. It will be fully 100 feet deep and the front will be the newest and prettiest in this section.

THE cut price sale of H. T. Logan, the Lancaster merchant, is attracting immense crowds to his store. The unprecedented bargains are going rapidly and if you want some of the good things that are offered you had better go at once.

CASEY county has bought the Bradfordsville turnpike, 12 miles in length, at $3 per $50 share, which is considered a bargain. The county has also bargained for a number of hares in the Carpenter's Creek pike at $10 per $50 share.

THE local optionists scored another big victory yesterday when Somerset went "dry" by a majority of 131. Both sides made a strong fight, the "wets," it is said, having spent an immense amount of money. Eld. Jos. Severance, formerly of this place, made a number of speeches for the temperance people.

NOTICE.—The Fiscal court of Lincoln county will convene in special session on Thursday, Dec. 20th, 1906, and all turnpike contractors who have completed their contracts and want any Christmas money will file their claims with the clerk on or before that day. R. C. Warren, judge Lincoln county court. Nov. 19, 1906.

SHOT, BUT NOT HURT.—As Judge W. L. Dawson was making his rounds on Rural Route No. 2 yesterday something struck him on the knee. Investigation showed that a bullet from a .22 caliber weapon had about spent its force and after striking his leg fell to the bottom of his wagon. Save a slight bruise, Judge Dawson suffered no inconvenience. He thinks that the bullet came from a hunter and that it was not an effort to hurt him.

ELEGANT DISPLAY.—The annual display of Christmas goods brought large crowds to George H. Farris' store yesterday afternoon and evening. The display was one of the best ever seen in Stanford and Mr. Farris, Mrs. Mark Hardin, Miss Mary Moberly and Mr. E. D. Kennedy are deserving of much praise for their artistic arrangement of the pretty China ware and other things peculiarly suitable for Christmas presents. The store was beautifully decorated and was made almost as light as day with lamps. The Stanford Colored Orchestra discoursed the sweetest of music. Mr. Farris knows how to make the ladies feel at home in his store as well as he does how to buy and display appropriate presents for old and young.

THE SILENT WITNESS.—Mrs. James I. McKinney, of Montgomery, Ala., who is well known here, has written a novel, "The Silent Witness" by name, which has been accepted by the Neale Publishing Co., of New York, and is now about ready for delivery. Under the pen-name of "Katydidd," Mrs. McKinney has already achieved an enviable reputation as a writer of poetry and song, and the acceptance of her work by a leading New York publisher proves that she is also an adept in fiction. It is a Kentucky story, we understand, and this, and the further fact that the authoress and her excellent husband are native Kentuckians as well as the intrinsic merit of the work will, we are sure, give it a wide circulation in this section.

SOME 25 or 30 good meat hogs for sale. B. D. Holtzclaw, 'phone 53-4, Stanford.

REV. L. C. KELLEY, of Louisville, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

MONDAY is county court day. Drop in and give us some news or some money or any old thing you may have a superabundance of.

FOR RENT.—The office in the INTERIOR JOURNAL building now occupied by J. S. Owsley, Jr., is for rent for the year 1907. Call at this office.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—The J. W. Perain cottage on Lancaster street. This place can be bought at a bargain. For particulars apply to L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

It pays to advertise. Mrs. John Traylor advertised for a package containing a hat and two veils which dropped out of her buggy as she was returning home. Mr. Josiah Datson found the articles and left them at this office yesterday.

HOUSES FOR RENT.—I desire to rent for the year 1907 the Helm residence on Danville Avenue. There are five acres of land in the lot and the home is a very desirable one. Also the brick cottage on Somerset pike now occupied by George T. Wood. H. Helm, Stanford, Ky.

IN Judge Warren's court Tuesday William Burke, of the Shelby City section, was acquitted of the grave charge of killing a dog belonging to William Farmer. Farmer sued for $75 damages but the jury found for the defendant. This was the third trial of the case, there being two hung juries before.
